

Bruce Johnson is a lifelong resident of Northeast Michigan. He has served on many boards and committees in a volunteer role. These include his time as Vice Chairman of the Posen Chamber of Commerce, a volunteer for Partners in Prevention, a volunteer for the Alpena County Local Emergency Planning Committee, and the time he has given to the Alpena County 911/Emergency Services. Bruce has worked for over 35 years in the broadcast industry. He is currently the News Director at WATZ Radio. He also provides WATZ with computer and electronics support.

