Grant Writing Workshop

"Lunch Bites" are fast-paced, enjoyable workshops conveniently scheduled over casual lunch. They are designed to allow busy professionals to gain valuable skills and information in a timely manner.

Lunch Bites - Grant Writing

Develop the skills required to execute successful grant applications for any organization. This series provides comprehensive information about the granting process and addresses critical aspects of writing a fundable proposal.

Learn to demonstrate the strength and viability of your organization and how to convey a compelling description of the situation your organization will address. Understand essential components of a grant proposal and how to match grant makers' interests.

Topics discussed in the seminar include:

- Where's the money?
- Essential components to a grant proposal
- Developing relationships with grant makers
- Dissecting and researching the Request for Proposal and its' enabling legislation
- Understanding the "intent" of the funder

Workshop Facilitator Dawn Stone is Director of the TAACCCT Grant at Alpena Community College. Stone has been writing and managing grants for nearly 20 years, with current oversight of nearly three million dollars from State and Federal sources. She received her BA from Michigan State University.

Each program is held at
Alpena Community College in the Newport Center,
Room 106 (across from Granum Theatre)
Cost: $90 covers all three sessions and includes lunch.
